The Eight Mansions Feng Shui "House Gua" System

Every kind of building belongs to one of 8 different energy pattern "types" according to this ancient interior Feng Shui method.

The 8 types are associated with the 8 root family trigrams which are called GUA in Chinese. In translating the well known term BaGua: "Ba" means 8 and "Gua" means trigram.

These 8 Gua form the foundation of the Chinese I Ching Book of Changes. Each represents a different kind of life essence and aspect of life. All are individual yet intertwined.

Discovering your home or workspaces GUA will enable you to know the location of some of its most auspicious directions so you can tap into these special chi fields and be in the natural flow of good luck.

What's Your Type?

To determine your building type it is best to take a compass reading and learn precisely which direction your home is oriented at.

For easy directions see my free report: ["[How to Get an Accurate Compass Reading."]

The compass direction at the back of your home or office, called the "sitting" direction, is what determines your building's "GUA."

Example:

- With your back to the front of your home facing across the street you will get a compass reading for the "facing" direction of your house.
- If your home is "facing" North at the front, then it follows that the back of your home would be "sitting" in the opposite direction which in this case would be South.
- Therefore the GUA for this example would be LI the GUA trigram for South

The Eight "GUA" Types

Your House "Sitting" Direction	South	South west	West	North west	North	North east	East	South east
Your House "GUA" Type	LI	KUN	TUI	CHIEN	KAN	GEN	CHEN	XUN
Your House "Element" Type	Fire	Earth	Metal	Metal	Water	Earth	Wood	Wood

The Simple Way to Boost your Favorable GUA Directions

It is always considered auspicious if your front Entrance, bedrooms and/or personal office fall into the most favorable building directions.

- Simply sleeping or working in one of your best directions keeps the energy in these areas engaged and moving.
- Even if you can't do the above you can energize these directions by keeping them well lit with natural or artificial lighting.
- A small fan or electrical objects can spark these areas up as well.
- Open the windows for at least one hour a day to encourage fresh air coming from these favorable sectors to circulate throughout all of the space.
- If your main Entrance is located in one of the beneficial GUA directions everyone in the house or office will be nourished from the location of this fortunate "mouth of chi."

If your main Entrance, bedroom or personal office do not fall into these particular good directions, not to worry!

There are many other ways of creating chi fields that resonate with good luck. Every direction has the potential to become good if you know what to do with it.

Example: A house is facing East.

- This means that the back of the house or "sitting" is in the opposite direction which in this case is West.
- The "GUA" for the West direction is TUI which belongs to the Metal element in the Chinese 5 Element system.
- Find the chart for TUI and note the 4 auspicious directions:

Sheng Chi      direction:      Northwest

Tien Yi      direction:      Southwest

Yien Nien      direction:      Northeast

Fu Wei      direction:      West

- See what parts of your house fall into these directions and how you might utilize them to better advantage.
- What is there right now? Have you placed your shredder here? Are these areas cluttered and blocking the good chi from circulating?
- Increase the beauty and keep these directions fresh and in good repair
- Add a meaningful, symbolic object to these directions to strengthen your intention for each kind of luck.
